RHB Bank Named Malaysia's Domestic Foreign Exchange Bank Of The Year

Singapore, 19 July 2013 – RHB Bank Berhad was recognised as Malaysia's Domestic Foreign Exchange Bank of the year at the Asian Banking & Finance Wholesale Banking Awards 2013.

The Bank emerged as the winner of this category based on the innovation, effectiveness and dynamism of its pioneering product, the RHB Multi Currency Account (RHBMCA).

RHB Bank was the first to introduce this product in 1996 and is known for its continuous innovation and efforts to meet its customer's needs. Since its inception, the bank has evolved to be the only bank in Malaysia to include precious metal investment i.e. Paper Gold into RHBMCA in 2012.

RHBMCA is a versatile multi-currency account designed for individuals and/or corporates with foreign exchange requirement and offers customers the opportunity to hold more than one foreign currency in a single account. It is a perfect hedging account for overseas payments or receivables and/or investment in foreign currencies covering 5 out of 7 continents' currencies i.e. 16 foreign currencies.

As the bank recently celebrated its 100th anniversary on 15th July 2013, RHB Bank will continue its effort to continuously develop new features to further improve the RHBMCA account's versatility.
