

RHB Bank Brings Concert to Kuala Lumpur

Kuala Lumpur, 9 November 2013 – The RHB Bank Concert attracted a big crowd as KL-ites joined the Bank in celebrating its 100th anniversary at Taman Tasik Titiwangsa, Kuala Lumpur today. The event was attended by Tan Sri Azlan Zainol, Chairman, RHB Bank Berhad and YB Datuk Johari Abdul Ghani, Member of Parliament for Titiwangsa.

Revellers were up on their feet, singing along to popular songs by Ning Baizura, Jaclyn Victor, Amy Search, Azlan & The Typewriter and Daniel of Malaysian Idol. A series of stage activities by Dato' AC Mizal got the audience busy participating throughout the evening. Lucky winners of a contest on RHB Bank held during the concert also walked away with shopping vouchers.

The concert in KL is the finale of the three concerts organised as part of RHB Bank's 100th Anniversary, celebrating a century of growth, progress and success. It is the Bank's way of showing its appreciation to customers, business partners and members of the public for their support throughout the years. Similar concerts were held previously in Johor Bahru on 7 September 2013 and Kuching, Sarawak on 28 September 2013.

Today, the RHB Banking Group is one of the leading financial services providers in Malaysia and has expanded regionally with footprints in the ASEAN region and Hong Kong. The Group looks towards positioning itself as a Leading Multinational Financial Services Group within the region.

Members of the public can log on to 'RHB Group' Facebook page to view pictures of the concert.
