RHB APPOINTS RYAN TEOH AS GROUP CHIEF STRATEGY & INNOVATION OFFICER

Kuala Lumpur – RHB Banking Group (“RHB” or “the Group”) has appointed Ryan Teoh as Group Chief Strategy & Innovation Officer, effective 1 November 2022.

Ryan joined the Group in November 2019 as Head of Group Strategy and was subsequently appointed as Acting Group Chief Strategy & Innovation Officer in June 2022. He has extensive experience working in the consulting field across various projects in Southeast Asia. Prior to joining RHB, he has held various positions focusing on growth strategy, digital acceleration, business transformation, operating models and transformation for financial services.

“In his role as Group Chief Strategy & Innovation Officer, Ryan will continue to drive the Group’s TWP24 key strategic priorities and build a competitive advantage for RHB by deeply integrating strategy, analytics, business intelligence and digital into the Group’s business and operations. This internal appointment underlines our commitment in encouraging the growth and development of our internal talents, ensuring continuity and stability within our senior leadership bench,” said Mohd Rashid Mohamad, Group Managing Director / Group Chief Executive Officer of RHB Banking Group.

Ryan holds a Bachelor of Science in Computing from Staffordshire University in United Kingdom and has a Master of Business Administration (“MBA”) from INSEAD.
