PROVIDER'S COMMENTS

MARKET REVIEW

Global equities were propelled by Developed Markets (+1.0%) to edge up 0.8% in April 2018, lifting year-to-date (YTD) returns to -0.6%. Among the Developed Markets, United States (US) added 0.3%, Europe 2.2% and Japan 0.7%. Futures markets participants are anticipating three more rate hikes in 2018, driving 10-year Treasury yields to scale 3.0% for the first time since 2014. The consequent strengthening of the United States Dollar (USD) (+2.1%) caused further downside in Emerging Markets (EMs) Commodities performed strongly in April 2018 - energy prices sustained their rally from March 2018 (Brent Crude: +8.5%, Gasoline: +5.2%), industrial metals rose sharply (Aluminium: +12.5%, Copper: +1.4%).

Asia Ex Japan equities rose 0.6% in April 2018 after a roller coaster ride during the month. China and Hong Kong fell sharply in the first week on rising trade war concerns as China retaliated to the US tariffs on Chinese imports announced in March 2018, leading to consideration of additional tariffs by the US. However, markets recovered during the second half as tensions diffused with the continued opening up of the economy by China. A 100 basis points (bps) Required Rate of Return (RRR) cut by the People's Bank of China (PBoC) provided comfort for investors. India (+4.1%) staged a mild recovery during the month after substantial underperformance in the first quarter, driven by the strong performance of software sector (+7.2%). Korea (+2.7%) was the cynosure in April 2018 with the historical Summit with North Korea paving the way for a peaceful, nuclear-free Korean Peninsula. Taiwan (-4.6%) was dragged down by the tech sector (-7.8%), which was suffering from the muted demand for iPhones as well as softer guidance from analysts for the next fiscal year.

The Kuala Lumpur Composite Index (KLCI) ended April 2018 with a 0.4% month-on-month (MoM) gain to close at 1,870 points and raised its cumulative gain to 4.1% in YTD. This could be due to foreign net buy of RM1.5 billion (bn) during the month. The KLCI also outperformed the MSCI Asia Pacific ex-Japan index (MXASI) in April as well as the broader market and small cap sectors. The best performing sectors in April 2018 were Real Estate Investment Trust (REIT), construction and finance sectors. April 2018 was an eventful month for the Malaysian market. Malaysia's Prime Minister announced the dissolution of Parliament on 6 April 2018, paving the way for a general election (GE14) on 9 May 2018. Bursa Malaysia implemented the intraday short-selling framework for all investors on 16 April and the KLCI index posted a new record high of 1,895 points on 19 April 2018.

MARKET OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

The unpredictability of how the trade relationship between the US and China unfolds ahead is now a key risk to equity markets – now well-conditioned to keep buying the dip. The potential risks will weigh on technology stocks, and escalation fears are likely to be a drag on the market. Investors remain complacent on inflation and monetary policies and, as the US Federal Reserve (US Fed) normalises and rates rise at a faster pace than what is currently priced in, we forecast a 25bps hike every quarter to end-2019.

Apart from Malaysia General Elections or GE14 results, investors will be tracking 1Q18 corporate earnings season and the 1Q18 Gross Domestic Product (GDP) growth for Malaysia due out on 17 May 2018. We probably expect to see corporates to announce poor earnings due to margin squeeze arising from high commodity prices. In this regard, we are in no hurry to accumulate and would only buy on weaknesses.
