MANAGER'S COMMENTS

MARKET REVIEW

Malaysian Ringgit ("MYR") continued to depreciate in May 2018 against the United States Dollar ("USD") despite Brent crude continuing to rally another 6% for the month. USDMYR climbed from 3.9235 at the start of the month and closed the end of the month at 3.9798, representing a -1.09% total return, MYR was the 9th worst performing Asian currency closing just above Taiwanese Dollar, Chinese Yuan and Thai Baht for May 2018. Local government bonds bear-steepened with the 20-year benchmark closing 17 basis points ("bps") higher month-over-month while 10-year Malaysia Government Securities ("MGS") closed the month at 4.20% (+7 bps higher). At month-end closed, MGS yields 3-, 5-, 7-, 10-, 15-, 20- and 30-year MGS were reported at 3.697% (April-2018: 3.629%), 3.824% (3.764%), 4.019% (3.827%), 4.202% (4.129%), 4.623% (4.648%), 4.902% (4.730%) and 4.926% (4.880%) respectively. The Government Investment Issues ("GII") – Shariah compliant version of MGS mirroring the same pattern with its MGS counterpart. However the short tenor up to 7-year experienced more than 10 bps rise in term of yields. At closed, the 3-, 5-, 7-, 10-, 15-, 20- and 30-year GII were reported at 3.742% (April-2018: 3.602%), 4.012% (3.851%), 4.159% (4.063%), 4.316% (4.303%), 4.764% (4.699%), 5.001% (4.886%) and 5.009% (5.001%) respectively.

On the local economic front, Malaysia's Consumer Prices Index ("CPI") for April 2018 was flat month on month, printing at 1.4% YoY vs 1.3% YoY previous month and below consensus estimates of 1.6% YoY with communication leading the decline while the other components were broadly benign. Headline CPI was stable likely due to the pass through from the monthly adjustments in fuel prices being held constant in the past month with RON95 at MYR2.20/litre and RON97 at MYR2.47/litre. March Industrial Production printed at 3.10% lower than estimates of 3.5%, but higher than last month's 3% reading, while March Trade Surplus registered higher than expectations at MYR 14.69bio due largely in part on Imports decelerating while Exports were +2.2% YoY. Bank Negara Malaysia (BNM) in the meeting immediately following the election results, kept Overnight Policy Rate ("OPR") unchanged at 3.25% as widely expected, citing resilient domestic demand, strength in external demand and that the overall risk to global growth is balanced. Their suggestion that "the degree of monetary accommodativeness is consistent with the policy stance to ensure that the domestic economy continues on a steady growth path amid lower inflation" is consistent with the tone of the past monetary policy meetings. We still maintain our overall view that there would be no further changes to the OPR rate for the rest of this year.
