MANAGER'S COMMENTS

MARKET REVIEW

Global equities ended the month of May 2018 flat, dragging year to date (“YTD”) returns to -0.8%. Developed market were mostly down with Europe falling -4.0% and Japan -1.1%, as investors responded with a risk-off stance to a host of factors that include the expectations of a growth slowdown outside the US, the political uncertainty in Italy and Turkey, the renewal of sanctions on Iran and the currency crisis in Argentina. The rally in Brent crude oil (+4.6%) continued in the first half of May 2018 but rolled over later on, as the reversal of prior supply cuts came back into consideration.

Asia Ex Japan Index equities lost 1.6% in May 2018, dragging YTD returns to -0.6%. China added 1.5% on the basis of the positive impact from the inclusion of A-shares in the Morgan Stanley Capital International (“MSCI”) benchmark indices. India (-3.7%) was adversely impacted by foreign outflows as overseas investors worried about the impact of higher oil prices as well as the results of the Karnataka state elections. Korea (-5.2%) had a tumultuous month, as the prospects of the North Korea-US Summit see-sawed. Indonesia (-1.9%) conducted two rate hikes to arrest the slide in the Rupiah (-2.3% YTD), while the Philippines (-4.9%) hiked once.

FTSE Bursa Malaysia (“FBMKLCI”) ended at 1740.62 points, decreased by -6.94% month-on-month (mom) basis, while on the year-to-date (ytd) basis, it has decreased by -3.13%. Investor sentiments were dampened by the higher than expected government total debt, and uncertainty over budget financing after the abolishment of GST and review of mega projects in the country.

MARKET OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

The United States Dollar (“USD”) recent strengthening against the Euro dollar has raised nervousness about emerging markets (“EM”). A stronger USD and higher United States Treasury yields would of course impose pain on EM asset prices, but we do not think EM is primed for any kind of major crisis. That view is reinforced by the fact that EM currencies are not especially expensive by historic standards. While we don’t see huge financial vulnerability in EM, a strong USD will push growth risks to the downside and inflation risks to the upside.

We opined that foreign investors will re-focus at Malaysia given better transparency and corporate governance from the new Pakatan Harapan government. Once the new government announce measures to plug in the revenue gap from the removal of Goods and Services Tax (“GST”) and efforts to cut unnecessary spending, we believe that the market would stage a strong recovery. In the near term, we believe uncertainty over the state of the nation’s fiscal position and external headwinds from the outflow of funds from emerging markets amid rising USD and trade tensions will lead to a choppy domestic equity market.
