RHB USD HIGH YIELD BOND FUND - USD CLASS

The Fund aims to maximise total return by investing in one target fund, i.e. the BlackRock Global Funds – US Dollar High Yield Bond Fund.

MANAGER'S COMMENTSPORTFOLIO ACTIVITY

The Target Fund's risk profile increased in April, and it remains overweight relative to the benchmark; importantly, the Target Fund Manager continues to favour more measured risk-taking overall and remains broadly constructive on high yield. Otherwise, there were no significant changes to the Target Fund's investment themes or positioning in April. From a sector standpoint, the Target Fund added risk to the banking and independent energy sectors, while reducing risk in technology and wirelines.

MARKET OUTLOOK AND POSITIONING

At month-end, the Target Fund maintained a large underweight to BB rated paper, an overweight to single-B rated credits and an overweight to select CCC rated issues with improving fundamental stories or other catalysts. Importantly, the Target Fund remains underweight the higher-yielding 8%+ segment of the market, which contains a high concentration of significantly stressed assets. On the issuer front, the Target Fund's top overweights include iHeartMedia (media & entertainment), The Stars Group (gaming) and Altice (cable & satellite). In addition to credit, the Target Fund Manager has favoured positions in equity and equity-like (preferred and convertibles) instruments to enhance the Target Fund's total return profile; the Target Fund Manager will tactically implement hedges to mitigate this risk when markets warrant. Generally, the Target Fund remained well diversified, with 500+ issuers and an average issuer-level position of 17 basis points, with the top 25 names constituting ~33% of the Target Fund.
