MANAGER’S COMMENTS

MARKET REVIEW

March 2020 was a bad month for Malaysia equity market. Oil prices collapsed after Russian and Saudi Arabia initiated a price war and increased the pumping of oil. Coronavirus cases continued to spike globally especially in the western economy. In order to control the virus from spreading fast, the government across the globe has introduced “lock down”.

Concern on global recession in 2020 loomed in as various economists and analysts are cutting the GDP for forecast to negative for few countries. The FBM KLCI Index touched its lowest level at 1,207 level but managed to close higher at 1,219 level on 19 March 2020. The index down by 234 points or 15% in the first quarter of 2020. However, the FBM KLCI performed relatively better than other indices in the region which were down more than 20% on the average. The FBM KLCI tends to outperform during market downturn.

MARKET OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

Equity markets are likely to continue with volatility as new cases are still on the rise globally with United States seeing the largest jump in numbers. Corporate earnings would also be downgraded further and the index might not reach its bottom yet.

The turning point would be where the number of reported cases globally recedes and countries starts to lift the lock down globally.

The FBM KLCI index at 1,350 level still has only factored in 3% drop in corporate earnings which we are of the opinion that it has not factored in recession in Malaysia. We would expect further downward revision in corporate earnings going forward. Hence, we will treat the market cautiously in view of further corporate earnings downgrade.
