MANAGER'S COMMENTS

MARKET OVERVIEW

- Per J. P. Morgan, the US HY market was down in February, totaling -1.88% for the month. Risk assets came under heavy pressure during the month as investors brace for the economic and earnings fallout from the spread of COVID-19.
- From a ratings perspective, CCC rated bonds outperformed B and BB rated bonds over the month of February. YTD performance is driven by CCCs, outperforming both BB and B rated bonds.
- US high yield risk premiums widened 110bps in February, representing a final period-end spread of T+584bps, a yield-to-worst of 6.84%, and an average market-weighted price of $99.19.

TARGET FUND'S MAIN PORTFOLIO CHANGES

- Broadly, there were no significant changes to the Target Fund's investment themes or positioning in February.
- The Target Fund's underlying portfolio risk decreased over the month (beta was 0.89).
- Overall, the Target Fund continues to favor more measured risk-taking in today's environment.
- From a ratings standpoint, the Target Fund increased exposure to BB rated bonds and decreased exposure to CCCs and B rated issuers; from a sector perspective, the Target Fund added to the Wirelines, Food and Beverage and Home Construction sectors, while reducing risk in the Technology, Pharmaceuticals and Media and Entertainment sectors over the month.

TARGET FUND'S POSITIONING

- The Target Fund's core issuer/credit biases remain centered on cash-flow views, determination of a specific catalyst, and/or idiosyncratic characteristics; top issuer overweights include Zayo Group (Wirelines), Altice France (Wireless) and Power Solutions (Automotive).
- From a credit standpoint, the Target Fund Manager remains underweight BB-rated credits and overweight select CCCs with improving credit positions or attractive yields.
- In addition to credit, the Target Fund Manager has favored positions in equity and equity-like (preferred and convertible) instruments to enhance the Target Fund's total return profile but will tactically implement hedges to mitigate this risk when markets warrant. The Target Fund Manager also hold a tactical allocation to CLOs.
- Generally, the underlying portfolio remained well-diversified with 520+ issuers, an average issuer-level position of roughly 18bps, with the top 25 names constituting 27.57% of the underlying portfolio.
