MANAGER'S COMMENTS

MARKET REVIEW

Surprisingly, global equity market continued to march higher after a strong rebound in the month of April 2020. Global equities kept up the momentum in May 2020, rising 4.2% during the month of May 2020 (year to date (YTD): -9.9%), assisted by extremely accommodative fiscal and monetary policy, and gradual easing of lockdown measures, especially in Europe. Developed markets led the rally with the US advancing +5.0%, Europe +4.2% and Japan +5.9%. Commodities bounced back led by energy prices. The Asia ex-Japan was the only region to buck the uptrend in May 2020, falling -1.4% during the month (YTD: -12.6%), dragged down by Greater China (China: -0.8%, Hong Kong: -8.9%, Taiwan: -2.5%) and India (-2.9%).

Domestically, the FBMKLCI rallied for the second consecutive month gaining +4.7% month-on-month (MoM) in May 2020 (April +4.21% MoM). The positive sentiments were driven by the gloves sector, recovery in crude oil and palm oil prices. On the monetary front, Bank Negara Malaysia (BNM) has cut its OPR by 50 bps to 2%, a level last seen during the 2008 to 2009 global financial crisis.

MARKET OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

The lock down and social distancing that would disrupt supply and demand will have an impact on company's revenues. We believe that the equity market has not factored in more cuts in corporate earnings and the indirect impact from MCO. In the short term, we expect equity market to be volatile and range bound as the market is adjusting for the new norm in the economy.

In terms of strategy, due to the volatile domestic equity market, we will focus on stocks with strong balance sheet, cashflows and good earnings growth potential, plus accumulating good quality stocks during weakness to benefit the fund in the longer term.
