MANAGER'S COMMENTS

MARKET REVIEW

A surge in new cases, especially across large tracts of the US, has raised the spectre of a second wave of COVID-19 infections. This looming threat, coupled with an equity market that had largely shrugged off the epidemic, weighed on sentiment towards the end of June 2020. US equity market advanced 2.1% during the month to finish its best quarter (2Q: 21.2%) in 35 years. Europe rose 3.9% in June 2020, Australia 6.8%, while Japan (-0.1%) stayed flat. Asia ex-Japan was up 7.9% in June 2020 (2Q: 15.8%, YTD: -5.7%). Tech-heavy countries, Taiwan and Korea (up 7.8%) reflected the sharp rebound in semiconductor trade, while India rose 6.7%. Subpar performance by Singapore (3.5%), Thailand (2.1%) and Malaysia (2.5%) weighed on ASEAN (3.7%).

The FBMKLCI index was struggling to stay above 1500 level during the month of June 2020 due to the absence of positive fresh leads and global negative factors that affected the sentiment of the equity market. With a confluence of negative factors like the uncertain quick global economic recovery, the resurgence of coronavirus infections worldwide, the potential uplifting of short-selling ban domestically post 30 June and possible snap election in 2H20, the index consolidated in June 2020 after touched the high of 1,590. Meanwhile, S&P downgraded Malaysia outlook to negative from stable, with A- rating.

MARKET OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

The equity market is expected to be in favour due to the expectations of prolong low inflation and low interest rate environment. The gradual recovery in the economy will also support the equity market going forward as investors are pricing in lower risks.

The index is expecting to form a base before we see a sustainable rebound in the equity market later. In addition, we are also expecting a shallow consolidation for the index due to ample liquidity in the economy. In addition, the Securities Commission and Bursa Malaysia has also extended the temporary suspension of short selling to 31 December 2020 from 30 June 2020. This is expected to reduce the volatility on stock trading and keep the local market buoyant.
