MANAGER'S COMMENTS

MARKET REVIEW

Despite rising Coronavirus Disease 2019 (COVID-19) cases around the world, Asia Ex-Japan equity market pulled off yet another strong performance in July 2020 to register its year-to-date (YTD) returns into positive territory. Main driver was from China, started off strongly rising 14.6% by 9 July 2020 on state media reports that suggested that the onshore market was ready for a "healthy bull market", before giving up 4.9% due to escalation in United States (US) - China tensions, to end the month up 8.9%. Hong Kong struggled due to resurgence of COVID-19 cases that prompted the re-enactment of social distancing protocols, as well as the elimination of its special treatment by the US under the US-Hong Kong Policy Act of 1992. Taiwan posted its best monthly returns in more than a decade, as index heavyweight surged after US chipmaker Intel announced delays in its next generation products and that it had decided to outsource its manufacturing operations. ASEAN continued to lag the broader region, dragged down by subpar performances by Singapore, Thailand and the Philippines.

Over in Malaysia, the market closed above 1600 points despite month end sell down ahead of the long weekend break. Glove stocks remained active as the number of COVID-19 cases continue to rise globally. Plantations stocks also gained after mini rally in Crude Palm Oil (CPO) price to intra month high of RM2,800. FBM KLCI's average daily transaction value (ADTV) increased to RM5.46 billion in July 2020 versus RM4.58 billion in June 2020 with retailers and local institutions remaining active. Best performing sector were Healthcare and Technology while the laggards were Reits and Construction

MARKET OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

Risk aversion and market volatility will remain high for the foreseeable future given the evolving situation on the COVID-19 pandemic. Localised outbreaks can be expected from time to time. Our base case expectation for COVID-19 to be broadly contained within 1H20 has broadly panned out in the Asian and European context. But surging COVID-19 infections in the US is raising concerns on the potential stalling of the expected economic recovery in the world's largest economy.

We expect market volatility to remain elevated from just the pandemic perspective. Investors should expect a choppy market going forward, despite the robust liquidity conditions that are helping to support risk assets.
