

RHB GROWTH AND INCOME FOCUS TRUST

This Fund aims to achieve maximum total returns through a combination of long term growth of capital and current income.

INVESTOR PROFILE

This Fund is suitable for Investors who:

- seek long term capital appreciation through investments in high growth potential small cap securities whilst requiring the flexibility of a conservative portfolio of fixed income securities in order to capitalise and adapt to prevailing market conditions; and
- are willing to accept slightly higher risk in their investments than that normally associated with a general balanced fund in order to achieve long term capital growth and income.

INVESTMENT STRATEGY

- 30% - 70% of NAV: Investments in securities of companies with market capitalization of not more than RM750 million ("small cap securities").
- 30% - 70% of NAV: Investments in fixed income securities, money market instruments, cash and deposits with financial institutions.

MANAGER'S COMMENTS

MARKET REVIEW

World equity markets started off strongly in the month of October 2020 on the back of continued improvement in economic data. However, the resurgence of new COVID-19 cases particularly in the US and Europe resulted most equity markets ended the month on the red. So far, the second wave of COVID-19 has been more pronounced in Europe and the US, forcing some countries to re-enact partial to complete shutdowns in selected regions. The spurt in new cases cast doubts over the growth momentum in the near term. For the month, the equity indices in the US, Europe and Japan declined, while Asia ex-Japan (+2.8% in October 2020, YTD: 6.4%) was the stand-out performer. China (+5.3%) rode on rising investor optimism, as it unveiled the 14th Five Year Plan to set out on becoming a country with leading global influence by 2049.

Domestically, the FBM KLCI retraced -2.52% MoM to 1,467 points. While it wasn't the weakest monthly performance this year (March 2020: -8.9% MoM), it was certainly the worst month for COVID-19 infections, with high number of cases reported, therefore, it was no surprise that Kuala Lumpur, Putrajaya, Selangor and Sabah went back into Conditional Movement Control Order ("CMCO"). Apart from the pandemic news, domestic political developments during the month also created volatility in the equity market as well. Meanwhile, the Brent crude oil price declined -8.5% during the month, due to continued demand concerns and the Crude Palm Oil futures traded higher to RM3,252, +14.5% MoM on the back of potential decline in productions.

MARKET OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

The resurgence of COVID-19 infections has resulted in varying degrees of lockdown measures being imposed which raised the concerns of a slower-than-expected global economic recovery. This implies that the prevailing coordinated efforts by governments to stimulate economies via both fiscal and monetary policies will stay for a prolonged period. Therefore, the flush of liquidity will continue to be positive for the equity market, while economic recovery slowly makes its way back to normalcy.

We expect equity market to remain volatile in view of domestic and external uncertainties, including the lingering COVID-19 pandemic. We maintain our cautious view and will focus on sectors or stocks with earnings growth in particular exporters.

DISCLAIMER:

Based on the fund's portfolio returns as at 10 October 2020, the Volatility Factor (VF) for this fund is 12.0 and is classified as "Moderate". (source: Lipper) "Moderate" includes funds with VF that are above 9.6 but not more than 12.8 (source: Lipper). The VF means there is a possibility for the fund in generating an upside return or downside return around this VF. The Volatility Class (VC) is assigned by Lipper based on quintile ranks of VF for qualified funds. VF is subject to monthly revision and VC will be revised every six months. The fund's portfolio may have changed since this date and there is no guarantee that the fund will continue to have the same VF or VC in the future. Presently, only funds launched in the market for at least 36 months will display the VF and its VC. The VC referred to was dated 30 June 2020 which is calculated once every six months and is valid until its next calculation date, i.e. 31 December 2020.
