MANAGER'S COMMENTS

FUND REVIEW

The RHB-OSK Asia Pacific Fund up 0.16% in Dec 2013, while benchmark of MSCI AC Asia Pacific Index advance 1.12% for the same period.

MARKET REVIEW

KLCI ended the year 2013 in positive node +10.5% while regional markets performance were mixed with Japan Nikkei 225 leading the peers, +56.7% as investors optimism on Abenomics and improve corporate earnings drive Japan equity rally and stocks rerating.

In the meantime, ASEAN markets performance were negatively affected by foreign fund outflow as Fed tapering starting Jan 2014, weaker macro outlook and relative outperformance of ASEAN markets vs. Developed markets since Global Financial Crisis compel investors to take profit thus driving markets to closed lower. SET led the decline, fell 6.7% on the back of political impasse while PCOMP shed 6.3% for the year end 2013.

MARKET OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

We maintain positive view on equity market, particularly North Asia markets on valuation ground and expect the local bourse to navigate 2014 through multi-speed global recovery. We foresee the U.S to lead the global economy recovery with more signs of positive macro front – improving jobs data, GDP growth and ISM manufacturing Index. Malaysia economy is expected to grow at 5.0% to 5.5% in 2014 despite higher inflation target of 3% to 3.5% due to fuel subsidy cut.

On local front, we continue to favour oil & gas, healthcare, consumer and telco while selectively bullish bias on infra related construction stocks. We envisage govt to rollout targeted infra projects such as WCE, HSR and MRT Circle Line to spearhead the economy and continue its reform agenda including subsidy rationalization which augur well for the economy.

Portfolio exposure ended Dec with 91.73% equity exposure. The portfolios at this stage have a blended cyclical and defensive stocks and may gravitate towards growth orientation if macro data continue to improve. We are looking to rotate positions in cyclical stocks while maintaining defensive core holdings.

Our key investment themes are – Industrials, Oil & Gas, Consumer, Utilities and Telcos.
