MANAGER'S COMMENTS

Malaysia Government Securities ("MGS") performance in December was mostly bearish bias as investors took profit for the year. At close, the 3-, 5-, 7-, 10-, 15-, 20- and 30-year MGS were traded at 3.33% (November: 3.09%), 3.69% (3.61%), 3.98% (4.04%), 4.08% (4.07%), 4.50% (4.27%), 4.55% (4.45%) and 4.92% (4.75%) respectively. Similarly, the Government Investment Issues ("GII") yields also traded higher with 3-, 5-, 7-, 10-, 15-year and 20-year benchmark yields crossed at 3.38% (November: 3.32%), 3.95% (3.88%), 4.06% (4.18%), 4.41% (4.40%), 4.66% (4.52%) and 4.79% (4.61%). Average daily trading volume for December was RM946 mln, notably lower than RM1.95 bln reported in November.

The final 2 auctions of the year - new issuance of 15-year GII (GII 12/28, RM2.0 bln, average yield 4.943%) and reopening of 3-year MGS (MGS 07/16, RM3.5 bln, 3.286%) - received strong to moderate bid-to-cover ratio of 2.87x and 1.568x respectively. Total issuance for 2013, including SPK, stood at RM96.9 bln, slightly higher than RM90 - 95 bln estimated by most of the research houses in the beginning of the year.

On the domestic economic front, trade surplus narrows slightly as import outpaced exports. October exports accelerated to 9.6% YoY (September: 5.6% YoY) - mainly led by Electrical & Electronics ("E&E") and LNG export - while imports surged 13.9% YoY (Sep: 2.8% YoY). Trade surplus thus narrowed marginally to RM8.23 bln (September: 8.66 bln). October Industrial Production ("IP") also up sequentially to 1.7% YoY (September: 1.0% YoY) on higher manufacturing and mining activities, in line with strong export demand. While it is still too early to be sure, the October data does hint at a pick-up in 4Q2013 GDP. Lastly, November CPI ticks up to 2.9% YoY (October: 2.8%), mainly led by food and non-alcoholic beverages. This comes as no surprise as sugar subsidies was removed in the 2014 Budget announcement.

On the other hand, the much anticipated MGS/GII auction calendar for 2014 was officially released. In the coming 2014, there will be a total of 28 tenders (2013: 27 tender) with 16 being MGS and 12 for GII. In terms of SPK, 4 scheduled tenders will be featured in 2014 (2 in 2013).
