MANAGER'S COMMENTS

MARKET REVIEW

The MSCI Asia ex Japan Index rose 0.5% supported by decent performances from ASEAN with flattish to lower North Asian markets.

OUTLOOK & STRATEGY

Markets were rocked by the sharp currency depreciation recorded Argentina and Kazakhstan attributable to the tapering effect. The development is somewhat akin to the experiences of Asian EMs over May – Sept 2013. The sole remedy is to get the economics of the country right. This is followed by political tensions in Ukraine whereby Russia declare it has to protect its interests, i.e. the Crimean peninsula.

US macroeconomic data continued to be lukewarm with the freezing weather as the drag. The data for March will tell whether weather is a factor or not. EU nonetheless continued to see healthy data flows indicating that the 1% growth forecasted for 2014 could be exceeded. This is important as EU is actually Asia's largest trading partners with the links closer than that of US.

Continue to focus on sectors likely to benefit from the developments in EU and US.
