MANAGER'S COMMENTS

FUND OBJECTIVE

The Fund objective is to provide regular income distributions from the investment in a Fixed Rate Note ("FRN") issued by Citigroup Funding Inc.

INVESTOR PROFILE

Suitable for investors seeking regular income distributions over an investment horizon of 3 years.

MARKET BRIEF

The Fund registered a negative return of -0.19%, underperformed its benchmark* return of 0.21% for the month of October 2014. The Fund's underperformance is mainly attributed to the compression in the value of the FRN.

Australian Commonwealth Government Bonds ("ACGB") bullish flattened alongside with risk free assets such as US Treasury. This is mainly due to the downward revision on growth by International Monetary Fund ("IMF") which saw growth from both Advanced Economies and Emerging Market contracting in 2014 and 2015. As at 31 October 2014, the 3-, 5-, 10- and 15-year ACGB were transacted at 2.57% (September: 2.73%), 2.82% (2.90%), 3.29% (3.48%), and 3.59% (3.83%) respectively.

RBA held rate unchanged at 2.50%, as lower rates are supporting housing prices and construction activities, which is part of the plan to rebalance growth. After a long period in which Australia was building mines and too few houses, there is a now a strong pipeline of housing construction. In addition, there are some signs of a modest improvement in conditions outside of the housing market. Broader measure of business conditions have lifted this year, from the low levels of 2013, although they still remain close to their averages. Overall, demand has also been sufficient to keep inflation close to target in underlying terms. The average measure of inflation rose by 2.6% YoY in Q32014, which is just above the middle of target band.

However, low interest rates also carry some costs. With RBA keeping cash rate at record lows for 14 months, some risks are building up. So far, the Central Bank has been reluctant to adopt macro prudential tools to manage the housing boom but hinted additional measures should be expected soon. On this note, we expect RBA is likely to increase cash rate at around 2H2015.
