MANAGER'S COMMENTSMARKET & PORTFOLIO PERFORMANCE

The Fund posted a net return of 2.7% for the quarter and underperformed its reference benchmark, which returned 3.8%.

Within equities, an overweight to Japan contributed to performance. From a sector perspective, stock selection in energy and healthcare added to returns. An underweight to fixed income contributed to performance. From a currency perspective, an overweight to the US dollar positively impacted performance.

In equities, stock selection in Europe and the United States detracted from performance. From a sector perspective, stock selection in information technology and industrials weighed on returns. An overweight to cash negatively impacted performance. From a currency perspective, an underweight to the Japanese Yen detracted.

*Reference benchmark is composed of 36% S&P 500, 24% FTSE World (ex U.S.), 24% BofA ML Current 5-Year U.S. Treasury Index, 16% Citigroup Non-USD World Government Bond Index.
