MANAGER'S COMMENTS*MARKET REVIEW

The local indices and market momentum remain weak in the month of November as investors were seen cautious amid lack of catalysts in the markets. Federal govt decision to remove the fuel subsidy and replaced by managed float system was seen as bode move by investors as a reign in fiscal deficit and channel the savings to fund the much needed infrastructure spending. Oil and gas sector was facing renew headwinds with oil price plunging over 30% since June 2014 and potential capex cut by national oil company Petronas put pressure on oil field related activities hence de-rating on broad spectrum of oil and gas stocks. Small mid cap space was not spared from the market weakness, judging by FBM Small Cap Index which fell 7.07% mom in November as investors concern on corporate earnings growth and potential impact on GST implementation on consumer consumption in 2015. In the meantime, Malaysia 3Q14 GDP growth eased to 5.6% yoy vs 6.4% in 2Q as exports growth and domestic demand weaken but inline with global trend. Industrial production also moderated to 5.4% yoy in September vs +6.5% in Aug, in tandem with slowing manufacturing activities.

MARKET OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

Malaysia is expected to grow between 4.5%-5.5% in 2014, likely nearer the upper band and higher than the 4.7% registered for 2013 and supported by a better global economy and investment spending. Inflation will be higher at 3.0%-4.0% from increased fuel and electricity costs and expectations of more reduction in subsidies moving forward and expected inflationary expectations prior to GST implementation. Against a backdrop of expected lower domestic demand and private consumption due to rising cost, net exports is expected to pick up helped by stronger exports to developed markets on an improving global economic growth outlook. BNM is likely to maintain its 3.25% OPR level for the rest of 2014 after the hike in July. Government fiscal restraints are expected to continue.

On sector basis, we continue to favour consumer, tech, healthcare, industrial and telco while selectively bullish bias on infra related construction stocks. We foresee 2015 continue to be a reform year for regional economies and Malaysia govt to rollout targeted infra projects to spearhead the economy and continue its reform agenda including subsidy rationalization which augur well for the economy. Increase market volatility globally will create capital misallocation and outflow of funds from emerging markets, thus misprice securities from fundamental. We remain cognizant of prevalent risks but look into adding bombed-out good fundamental stocks to enhance alpha.
