5. What are some of the key terms and conditions that I should be aware of?
A. Importance of Disclosure (Statement Pursuant to Schedule 9 of the Financial Services Act 2013)
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Pursuant to Paragraph 5 of Schedule 9 of the Financial Services Act 2013, if you are applying for this Insurance wholly for purposes unrelated to your trade, business or profession, you have a duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation in answering the questions in the Proposal Form (or when you apply for this insurance). You must answer the questions fully and accurately. Failure to take reasonable care in answering the questions may result in avoidance of your contract of insurance, refusal or reduction of your claim(s), change of terms or termination of your contract of insurance. The above duty of disclosure shall continue until the time your contract of insurance is entered into, varied or renewed with us. In addition to answering the questions in the Proposal Form (or when you apply for this insurance), you are required to disclose any other matter that you know to be relevant to our decision in accepting the risks and determining the rates and terms to be applied. You also have a duty to tell us immediately if at any time after your contract of insurance has been entered into, varied or renewed with us any of the information given in the Proposal Form (or when you applied for this insurance) is inaccurate or has changed.

- You must take reasonable care to provide us with all the answers and not to make misrepresentation. If you misrepresented any facts to us before the policy was entered into, we may: -
 - declare your policy void from inception (which means treating it as invalid), we may not make any return of premium and also recover any unpaid premium;
 - cancel this policy and return any premium less our cancellation charge or recover any unpaid premium;
 - recover any shortfall in premium;
 - not pay any claim that has been or will be made under the policy;
 - be entitled to recover from you the total amount of any claim already paid under the policy or any claim we have to pay under any relevant legislation, plus any recovery costs.

B. Premium Warranty

This insurance is subjected to 60 days Premium Warranty, i.e. premium due must be paid and received by insurer within sixty (60) days from inception. Failing which, policy is automatically cancelled and 60 days' pro rate premium shall be entitled to insurer.

C. Importance of Keeping the Receipt

You are strongly advised to keep the receipt after payment has been made for future reference.

D. Policy Issuance

The Policy Schedule will be delivered to you within 30 working days from the date of your application approved.

E. Duty of Insured

You should not admit, offer, promise or pay the claimant without our written consent.

Note: This is non-exhaustive. Please refer to policy documents for full details.

6. What are the major exclusions under this policy?

This policy does not cover loss or damage caused by arising out of:

- Lack of integrity of the insured's employees other than messengers or employees acting as messengers.
- War and related risks
- Strike, riot and civil commotion
- Any act or terrorism
- Any consequential loss whatsoever
- Losses arising from ionising, radiations or contamination by radioactivity from any nuclear fuel, nuclear waste or any nuclear weapons material
- Losses covered by or which but for the existence of this policy would be covered by any policy of Fidelity Guarantee and this policy shall not contribute to such loss except in excess of any amount recoverable thereunder.

Note: This is non-exhaustive. Please refer to policy documents for full details.

7. Can I cancel my policy?

You may cancel your policy at any time by giving fourteen (14) days' written notice to the insurance company. Upon cancellation, you are entitled to a refund of premium less premium based on your short period rates for the period of the policy which has been in force.

8. What do I need to do if there are changes to my contact / personal details?
