

NOTICE: REFLEX FOREIGN TELEGRAPHIC TRANSFER (FTT) PROCESS CHANGE

Thank you for using RHB Reflex.

Please be informed that starting on 20th June 2020, Reflex FEA Declaration Form submission will be via online. Customer will need to upload relevant supporting documents as a prove of relationship to the beneficiary during filling up the Declaration Form. The objective of this enhancement is to reduce number of customer walk-in to the Branches due to COVID-19 pandemic.

Please refer to attached User Guide on the new norm of submission of the Declaration Form.

Should you require further assistance, please visit our nearest RHB branches or call our Customer Care Centre at 03 - 9206 8118.

Thank you for your cooperation and continuous support for RHB Reflex.

Regards, RHB Reflex

FTT Frequently Ask Questions (FAQs)

Question: I have declared list of beneficiaries before 10th August 2019. What will happen to the declared beneficiary?

Answer: We have preloaded all declared beneficiaries with complete information before 10th August 2019. You may proceed to perform FTT transaction to the declared beneficiary. For declared beneficiary which with incomplete information, you need to declare again.

Question: What I must do 1st after 10th August 2019?

Answer: Please update your contact details in FEA Declaration Form module. In addition, if you are making transaction to the declared beneficiary, please verify the information that has been preloaded.

Question: I wish to make FTT transaction to the declared beneficiary but with different account.

Answer: You will need to declare the beneficiary again with the new account. This is because declaration is based on specific information and if the information is differ, it is no longer valid. Alternatively, you may proceed with normal FTT (open beneficiary). Please take note transaction to open beneficiary will be undergo document verification by the Bank.

Question: I don't have any declared beneficiary, am I allow performing FTT transaction via Reflex?

Answer: Yes, you may submit FTT transaction as open beneficiary and subject to document verification by the Bank.

Question: What is the SLA for the Bank to perform document verification for transaction to open beneficiary?

Answer: The SLA is within 3 working days. If the document is deemed good, the Bank will approve and the transaction will be processed immediately. If the Bank need additional document, the Bank will return the transaction to you for uploading new document. We strongly advise you to perform FTT transaction to non-declared beneficiary in the morning. By doing this, we will have ample time to verify your supporting document on the same day.

Question: If the Bank has rejected the document, what is the SLA for me to re-upload the new document?

Answer: The SLA for the transaction is within 3 working days from the date your Authorizer approved the transaction. Any re-upload must be done within the SLA.

Question: What if I am not re-uploading the new supporting document for bank verification?

Answer: The transaction will be expired after 3 working days.

Question: What is the maximum file size can I upload for the supporting document?

Answer: Maximum supported file size per transaction: 3MB

Question: Can I upload any file?

Answer: No, you only allow submitting the supporting document file in tif, .tiff, .gif, .jpeg, jpg, .jif, .jfif, .jp2, .jpx, .j2k, .j2k, .pcd, .png, bmp, .pdf format.

Question: Can I submit the transaction without upload any supporting document?

Answer: No, system will prompt error message "Supporting document is mandatory for this transaction. Kindly upload supporting document in FEA Supporting Document Upload page."

System will not allow you to proceed to acknowledgement page.

Question: Can my reviewer and authorizer view and modify the uploaded documents?

Answer: Yes, your reviewer and authoriser are allowed to download, delete and upload supporting documents as long as the transaction status still pending authorization.

Question: Where can I check the document verification status after my transaction has been approved?

Answer: Go to Task List \rightarrow FEA Supporting Document Upload. You can view status for Document Verification and Transaction.

Question: My sysadmins successfully submit the beneficiary declaration via Reflex with supporting documents uploaded into it, what is the next step before I am able to perform FTT transaction to my declared beneficiary?

Answer: The Declaration Form will be verified and approved by the Bank before the beneficiary appear in FTT listing.

Question: How long will it take the Declaration Form to be approved?

Answer: The SLA is 3 working days. Once the Branch approves the Declaration Form, all beneficiary listed in the Declaration Form will be immediately appear in FTT screen.

Question: My authorizer is always approves transaction via mobile. Can he/she view the supporting document attached to a transaction via mobile?

Answer: Unfortunately the supporting document only available for Authorizer to view via web.

Question: I have a lot of beneficiary to declare. Is there any better way to declare the beneficiary details?

Answer: You may declare the beneficiary details via file upload. Just prepare the file as per file format in the Appendix H and follow the steps in Guides: RHB Reflex - Declaring Beneficiary by Sysadmin.

Question: Where can I get information on country, SWIFT code, FEA and payment purpose code?

Answer: For the country name maintained in Reflex, please refer to Appendix F. For SWIFT code, please refer to https://www.theswiftcodes.com/. Please take note that Reflex only accept code with 11 characters. If your beneficiary provide 8 characters code, you may add "XXX" at the back of the code which referring to the primary office of the beneficiary bank. Alternatively, you may seek advice from your beneficiary to provide the 11 characters code. For the FEA and payment purpose code, please refer to Appendix D.
